The Need at St. James AME Church, Mayfield Kentucky

On December 10, 2021, a violent, long-tracked tornado moved across Western Kentucky, producing catastrophic damage in Mayfield, a town of about 10,000 residents. Because Advent supported Katrina hurricane victims through an Episcopal church in Pascagoula in 2006, I searched for Episcopal churches in Mayfield and found St. James, an African Methodist Episcopal (AME) church. AME means the church was organized by people of African descent and heritage. The church's roots are of the family of Methodist churches, placing their emphasis on a plain and simple gospel. Episcopal refers to their form of government, governed by bishops.

I spoke with Thomas Bright, the treasurer/sexton/sr. warden who provided background and context. The St. James building was devastated and partially destroyed by the tornado. Their average Sunday attendance had been 25-30 (smaller than Advent) and their pastor traveled 80 miles one way most every Sunday to lead worship and preach. Thomas' 80-year-old aunt and a parishioner died in the tornado. Established in 1868, the church has been a spiritual mainstay in the community. They plan to rebuild and have been granted $100,00 to restore this historically significant building. A candle factory in Mayfield, a major employer, was destroyed and will not be rebuilt, thus adding to the area's economic woes. Thomas was overwhelmed by Advent's "out of the blue" expression of financial support and prayer. At our meeting this week, the Vestry voted to provide St. James $10,000 for their near-term needs. Many of you have already contributed funds to support St. James. We will collect future donations over the next couple of weeks so your expressions of support can be combined with Advent's outreach provision.

We added St. James to our Prayers of the People during Sunday services. Please include them in your personal prayers.
